Victor Molander, CEO of Netigate replies: 2009 was a fantastic year for Netigate. We have experienced strong growth in all markets and have many returning and new customers. I can already say that 2010 started very well. We have big plans for 2010 and see the whole of Europe as our major growth market. At the end of the year we opened three new offices in Berlin, Oslo and Warsaw and we will continue to grow even during the continuation of this year.
